

Announcement about Journal of Applied Physics (JJAP) Special Issue

K. Sakai and J. Kondoh (Chief Editors of Special Issue)

- 1) JJAP is published by IOP Publishing (IOPP) on behalf of the Japan Society of Applied Physics since 2019. Submission system is changed from JJAP Special Issue of Ultrasonic Electronics (USE) 2019. Authors submit their paper using ScholarOne Manuscript (SIM).
- 2) When the editor decides that the submitted paper needs revision, the authors must resubmit within 21 days. If the author delays over 21 days, the paper is automatically rejected. When the author need more than 21 days for the revision, before the deadline, the authors must apply for the extension of the deadline to JJAP team: jjap\_special@jsap.or.jp (special issues).

- 3) Limitation of the number of pages is modified.

Type of paper	Max. words	Reference	Number of figure (*1)	Number of pages
Progress Review	-	$\geq 30$	-
Regular Papers	-	$\geq 30$	-	$\geq 4$ (*2)
Brief Notes	2700	$\geq 20$	3	3 or 4

*1 If the author wants to increase the numbers of figures, the maximum words must be reduced. One figure is counted to 300 words.

*2 The Regular paper, whose page number is less than the Brief Note, is not accepted.

- 4) When the authors wish to correct English by native speakers, please do it before submitting. Proofreading of English is done by IOPP, after the paper is accepted.
- 5) Publication fee for the special issue (include English proofreading)
  - Progress Review: ¥40,000
  - Regular Paper: ¥40,000
  - Brief Note: ¥20,000

- 6) Others

A) Proceedings of USE are published online. Please note the following points not to be considered as duplicate publication.

1. The authors must cite the corresponding USE proceeding paper in the manuscript.
2. Authors must include a brief description in Introduction about new additions in the manuscript compared to the proceeding paper.

B) The copyright for all contents in the Symposium Proceedings belongs to Symposium on USE Organizing Committee, and one cannot use any contents in the proceedings without permission. However, when the authors of the proceedings use figures and tables in their proceedings paper for their corresponding JJAP special-issue paper, the authors can use them without permission. In such case, the authors must refer their proceedings paper.
